4 at the club – groovin´acoustic music

The band 4 at the club was founded in 2003 by the Nuremberg guitarist and band leader Rue Protzer and belongs to the most booked event bands of Germany.

Mainly in acoustic cast, the top-class instrumentalists and singers of 4 at the club interpret a selected repertoire of jazz, lounge, pop, latin & soul.

In addition to jazz classics by Frank Sinatra and Michael Buble, the first-class staffed live band also presents own arrangements of pieces by Bruno Mars, Bill Withers, Robbie Williams and Tom Jones.

Compositions such as „I Will Survive“, „Sunny“ or classics like „Mack The Knife“ appear in a new guise and inspire the audience again and again.

Europe-wide booked for various shows, 4 at the club perform at high class events like the Ball of Sports in Wiesbaden, the BMW Open in Munich, the European premiere of „Indiana Jones“ for Paramount Pictures, at international events such as the horse race in Baden-Baden and international trade fair events (IAA, CeBit, Elektronica, bauma, Inhorgenta, Internat. Logistics Fair and many more)

4 at the club hereby abstain from technical tricks – everything is live!

The motto „groovin´ acoustic music“ is significant for the exceptional cast, the unbelievable joy of playing and the thrilling rhythm of the exclusive live band.
